PRESS RELEASE

ESCP Europe 's Master in Management programme ranks number 5 worldwide

ESCP Europe has been ranked number five in the Financial Times Master in Management Ranking 2019.

The ESCP Europe Master in Management delivers a unique student experience through a pan-European multi-campus management programme. Located in six European cities - Paris, London, Madrid, Berlin, Turin and Warsaw, ESCP Europe is also ranked number one in Germany, Spain, Italy and Poland.

An impressive 99% of the Masters in Management graduates are employed just three months after graduation. The programme has 50% female students and scored particularly well in "career services" and "international mobility".

Professor Frank Bournois, Dean of ESCP Europe, says: " We are delighted with this position: we are the oldest business school in the world and we continue to rank well on criteria that is vital in our global strategy. We are always looking forward, and although we live in uncertain times, our course is designed to develop a new generation of intercultural, business leaders."

Professor Cecile Kharoubi, Associate Dean for the MIM programme, adds "This ranking is the result of a collective work carried out on each of our campuses, by the Professors and the staff. We are very happy and proud for our students: they are and remain our best ambassadors."
