PRESS RELEASE

ESCP Business School's custom programmes ranked 14th worldwide

In the latest Financial Times Executive Education rankings, ESCP Business School have climbed the prestigious table to 14th in the world for their customs programmes.

With an increase of 10 places since 2017, the business school's Executive Education team has been placed 9th in the world for the best satisfaction rate of clients, and 7th worldwide for the international experience offered to clients.

Executive Education at ESCP Business School has proven to be amongst the most innovative and professional when it comes to creating custom programmes that match the needs of directors, executives, high-potentials, managers, experts and young talents.

Bertrand Moingeon, Director of Executive Education says,

"We are grateful to our corporate partners with whom we co-construct innovative programmes on our European campuses. We remain highly mobilized to support our clients in meeting the challenges of the current context."

In an ever changing and unpredictable business environment, the schools tailor-made training courses continue to be designed to meet the detailed requirements of specific organisations, enabling transformation and enhancing performance.

ABOUT ESCP BUSINESS SCHOOL

ESCP Business School was founded in 1819. The school has chosen to teach responsible leadership, open to the world and based on European multiculturalism. Our campuses in Berlin, London, Madrid, Paris, Turin and Warsaw are the stepping stones that allow students to experience this European approach to management. Several generations of entrepreneurs and managers were thus trained in the firm belief that the business world may feed society in a positive way. This conviction and our values: excellence, singularity, creativity, and plurality, daily guide our mission and build up our pedagogical vision. Every year, ESCP welcomes 6000 students and 5000 managers from 120 different nationalities. Its strength lies in its many business training programmes, both general and specialized: Bachelor, Master, MBA, Executive MBA, PhD and executive education, all of which include a multi-campus experience.
