PRESS RELEASE

Make Your Choice: Two weeks before the crucial 2020 election, ESCP will host an online debate between representatives of the Democrat and Republican Parties on the key US economic and social policy issues at stake

Every 4 years, ESCP Business School invites representatives of the Republican and Democratic parties to debate future American elections in front of its students and graduates.

Organized by the school in partnership with Democrats Abroad France and Republicans Overseas France, the debate will be held online on Tuesday, October 20 from 6pm to 7:30pm and will be divided into two parts, one with "junior" and the other with "senior" debaters on the issue of "Which candidate is best placed to meet the challenges of the economic, social and foreign policy of the United States?"

1st Debate (Juniors): Jonathon Holler, Vice-Chair of Democrats Abroad France vs. Randy Yaloz, President of Republicans Overseas France

2nd Debate (Seniors): Ada Shen, Chair of Democrats Abroad France vs Paul Reen, President of Republicans in France

The event will be broadcasted via ESCP's Youtube channel at:

ABOUT ESCP BUSINESS SCHOOL

ESCP Business School was founded in 1819. The School has chosen to teach responsible leadership, open to the world and based on European multiculturalism. Six campuses in Berlin, London, Madrid, Paris, Turin and Warsaw are the stepping stones that allow students to experience this European approach to management.

Several generations of entrepreneurs and managers were thus trained in the firm belief that the business world may feed society in a positive way.

This conviction and ESCP's values - excellence, singularity, creativity and plurality - daily guide our mission and build its pedagogical vision.

Every year, ESCP welcomes 7100 students and 5000 managers from 120 different nationalities. Its strength lies in its many business training programmes, both general and specialised (Bachelor, Master, MBA, Executive MBA, PhD and Executive Education), all of which include a multi-campus experience.

It all starts here.
