PRESS RELEASE

ESCP Business School successfully enters the Financial Times Global MBA Ranking for the first time

ESCP Business School ranked 13th in Europe for its global MBA programme and in the top six of every country it is located in, including being ranked 1st in Germany, 2nd in Italy and 3rd in France.

This comes as a huge success for the school as it places 52nd in the world for its first Financial Times Global MBA Ranking entry.

Professor Frank Bournois, Executive President & Dean, says: "Ranking among the top MBAs worldwide is an incredible achievement. Our MBA truly gives business leaders the opportunity to gain a strategic overview and flourish once they graduate."

The international journey is fully embedded within ESCP's DNA. It is highlighted with the institution ranking 1st for international course experience, 1st in international student diversity and 8th for international mobility.

These outcomes demonstrate the singularity of ESCP's pan-European model, allowing students to experience multiculturalism first-hand across our six campuses (Paris, Berlin, London, Madrid, Turin, Warsaw).

With its pioneering spirit, the World's First Business School continues to inspire and educate purposeful leaders around the world.

Professor Leon Laulusa, EVP & Dean for Academic Affairs, adds: "This excellent position is testimony of our outstanding pedagogy and unique curriculum."

Professor Laura Reyero, Associate Dean of the MBA in International Management says: "This ranking success recognises our MBA's constant aim towards the students' professional development and personal fulfilment."

ABOUT ESCP BUSINESS SCHOOL

ESCP Business School was founded in 1819. The School has chosen to teach responsible leadership, open to the world and based on European multiculturalism. Six campuses in Berlin, London, Madrid, Paris, Turin and Warsaw are the stepping stones that allow students to experience this European approach to management.

Several generations of entrepreneurs and managers were thus trained in the firm belief that the business world may feed society in a positive way.

This conviction and ESCP's values - excellence, singularity, creativity and plurality - daily guide our mission and build its pedagogical vision.

Every year, ESCP welcomes 8000 students and 5000 managers from 122 different nationalities. Its strength lies in its many business training programmes, both general and specialised (Bachelor, Master, MBA, Executive MBA, PhD and Executive Education), all of which include a multi-campus experience.

It all starts here.
