ESCP Business School ranks 7th worldwide in Financial Times Master in Management ranking

In the Financial Times annual ranking of the top 100 Master in Management programmes, ESCP Business School comes in 1st across the United Kingdom, Germany, Spain, Italy and Poland, 3rd in France, 5th in Europe, and 7th worldwide.

ESCP's Master in Management (MiM) stands out for its international outlook. The programme ranks 5th globally for international course experience and features both the most diverse student cohort (98% international students) and faculty (93% international faculty, 46% female faculty) among the world's top 10 business schools.

Delivered over two years and across two to six European countries, ESCP's MiM shapes accountable, bold and creative leaders at the intersection of business, technology, and global affairs. With over 70 specialisations, 45 dual degree partnerships, and 6 European campuses, this programme offers unparalleled opportunities for global exposure and personalisation.

Every year, over 1,200 students graduate from ESCP's MiM programme, representing the largest cohort among the FT MiM top 100. With an overall satisfaction rate of 8.95, ESCP's world-class faculty and staff are deeply committed to every student's academic fulfillment and personal growth.

At the core of ESCP's strategic vision and pedagogical model is a dedication to innovation that fosters ethical, human-centred leadership, grounded in critical and systemic thinking. All ESCP students, including first-year and second-year Master in Management students, are beginning this new academic year as integral players in ESCP's AI transformation.

Our 12,000+ students, faculty and staff have access to the most cutting-edge AI models via OpenAI's ChatGPT Edu. Beyond using AI, they have the opportunity to shape and build it themselves — empowered by open science and open-source AI through Hugging Face platform's Academia Hub. To ensure responsible use, every student follows a course on “GenAI in business and in my studies” from day one.

“Since 2010, ESCP’s Master in Management programme has consistently ranked in the world’s top 10 programmes,” says Prof. Léon Laulusa, Executive President and Dean of ESCP Business School. “This sustained excellence reflects not only our pride but also our collective determination to shape the future of management education — with the bold and shared ambition of becoming the first European University of Management by 2030.”

Each year, ESCP’s Master in Management equips over a thousand future leaders and entrepreneurs with strategic vision and operational excellence — empowering them to succeed and make a positive impact across global sectors such as consulting, finance, technology, industry, luxury, and fashion. According to the 2025 FT ranking, 100% of the most recent ESCP MiM class found employment within three months of completing the programme.

The programme also performs strongly on sustainability metrics, ranking 8th worldwide for ESG and net zero teaching. ESCP integrates ESG principles within the core business courses while also providing dedicated specialisations in sustainability, including sustainable finance and social entrepreneurship.

“Thanks to the dedication of our faculty and staff, and the hard work of our students, every ESCP graduate leaves the School equipped with the skills and mindset to collaborate with and lead international, multicultural teams,” says Prof. Yannick Meiller, Associate Dean of the Master in Management programme at ESCP Business School. “Congratulations to our alumni, students, faculty and staff, whose collective efforts have made these outstanding results possible year after year.”

About ESCP Business School

ESCP Business School was founded in 1819, making it the world's oldest business school. Throughout its 200-year history, ESCP has remained committed to educating accountable, bold and creative leaders who launch trends, bring new solutions and initiate the codes of tomorrow.

ESCP's six campuses in Berlin, London, Madrid, Paris, Turin and Warsaw are the stepping stones that allow students to experience ESCP's European approach to management grounded in multiculturalism.

Every year, ESCP welcomes 11,000+ students and 6,000 managers from 136 different nationalities. Its strength lies in its many business training programmes, both general and specialised (Bachelor, Master, MBA, Executive MBA, PhD and Executive Education), all of which include a multi-campus experience.

With innovation as our cornerstone, we are accelerating academic research and business education to forge new pathways for a better future for all.

It all starts here.
