

HESA Data Collection Notice

ESCP Business School is listed in the UK as a Higher Education Provider and as such, needs to keep and process data for the Higher Education Statistics Agency \(HESA\).

The Higher Education Statistics Agency (HESA) collects a range of data every year UK-wide from all higher education providers. This data is then shared with different UK government departments and higher education funding bodies. In addition, information derived from the data is published as official statistics. Every year the School will send some of the information it holds about students and staff to HESA. HESA will use such information as described in the applicable HESA data collection notice.

All uses of HESA information must comply with the General Data Protection Regulation (the “GDPR”) and other applicable data protection legislation. You can find more information about HESA’s compliance with data protection legislation on the HESA data protection pages.

Under the GDPR you have the right to request access to your information held by HESA. You also have the right to request rectification of incorrect information. To exercise these data protection rights, you need to contact the HESA Data Protection Officer (data.protection@hesa.ac.uk).
