Who is eligible?

The scholarship is open to all students who have successfully enrolled in the MSc in Economics & Policy for Business (MEP) programme before the scholarship application deadline.

The award is designed to support exceptional individuals who demonstrate academic excellence, leadership potential, and a strong commitment to shaping the future of sustainable and inclusive economic policy.

How to Apply?

Please complete this form clearly and return it via email to masterlondonadmissions@escp.eu. All questions must be answered. If a section does not apply to you, please indicate that it is not applicable (N/A).

How the decisions are made?

Successful candidates will submit an essay that embodies ESCP's values of creativity, collaboration, and responsible leadership - with a clear vision for how economic and policy innovation can drive positive change for businesses and society.

The Jury will thoroughly review each submission before making the decision based on the merit of the essay.

You will be notified in writing regarding the outcome of your application. All decisions are made after the deadline passes.

Incomplete forms will not be considered. Applications may not be modified once they have been submitted. All information must be submitted in English. Please note that you cannot apply for this scholarship unless you have fully confirmed your place on the specialisation.
