

Call for Applications: Visiting Research Fellowship at ESCP Business School, Turin Campus

The ESCP Business School, Turin Campus invites applications for its Visiting Research Fellow Programme. This opportunity is designed for PhD-holding scholars seeking to engage in collaborative research, participate in academic exchange, and contribute to the intellectual life of our research community. The programme is supported by Fondazione Compagnia di San Paolo.

Programme Details:

- Duration: Short period (1 to 3 weeks)
- Location: Via Andrea Doria 27, ESCP Business School, Turin, Italy
- Eligibility: We encourage applications from researchers working in disciplines aligned with ESCP's fields of study, broadly including: economics, finance, management, and marketing.

Visiting Fellows are expected to enrich the academic life of ESCP by advancing their research projects, collaborating with faculty members, and taking part in academic seminars and events. While the fellowship carries no teaching or administrative duties, opportunities to deliver a short course or seminar may be arranged upon mutual consent.

Thanks to the support of Fondazione Compagnia di San Paolo, ESCP supports visiting scholars by providing a competitive lump-sum contribution, along with logistical assistance for accommodation and support with childcare options in Turin.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

ESCP does not offer visiting fellowships for the month of August.

Interested candidates should submit their applications online using the link. Applications should include a CV and a short description (1-2 pages) of the proposed research activity to be carried out during the visiting period. Applicants should also indicate a host faculty member at ESCP Turin and their preferred period of stay.

DEADLINES

Applications are reviewed on a rolling basis, and successful candidates will be notified after the evaluation process has been completed.
