

01 Message from the Dean

Prof. Dr. Maria Koutsovoulou
Associate Dean
MBA in International Management

- In a fast-changing world, cultural and emotional intelligence and business acumen are essential characteristics of agile leaders. Boosting your creativity and your problem-solving abilities in multicultural teams will prepare you to be a future shaper of international business, while creating value for yourself and the companies you will create or join.
- The MBA in International Management is designed for young professionals, as a full-time intensive general management programme with a strong cross-cultural approach.

It provides an excellent connection to the world of business and a solid foundation for an international career along with a tremendous enriching personal development experience.

- There is no doubt that the MBA will be very rewarding for you both in terms of personal development and future career progression. We invite you to take the next step in the MBA journey and to embark on a learning experience like no other. The MBA in International Management is a life-changing programme.

The MBA in IM provided me with the opportunity to live and study in two major European cities (Paris and London) and to be part of an amazingly diverse class leading to the most interesting conversations and learning opportunities. This fantastic year was key to bridge my previous experience as a Private Equity Analyst investing mainly in Morocco with my new role in EBRD, working in the most diverse environment in London and investing in more than 35 countries.
