

The Jean-Baptiste Say Institute for Entrepreneurship at ESCP Business School Berlin is looking for a new team member for the following position starting on 1. September 2022 or later:

Student Assistant (m/w/d) (10 working hours per week)

About us:

The Jean-Baptiste Say Institute for Entrepreneurship at the ESCP Business School is the central point for activities in the areas of entrepreneurship and innovation at its various European locations. We mainly focus on three areas of excellency: 1) Entrepreneurial methods and their didactics; 2) Entrepreneurship in start-ups, established companies and beyond; 3) Entrepreneurial ecosystems and their interrelations. We are actively involved in research, teaching and real-world projects and in many areas we work closely together as a European team with our colleagues in London, Madrid, Paris, Torino and Warsaw.

Tasks:

At our Institute you will help us with a variety of tasks including administration, communication and research as well as organizing events and supporting our incubator, the Blue Factory. You will also be involved in our EXIST Potentiale project „Best Place” sponsored by the Federal Ministry of Economics. The aim of the project is to build and enlarge effective structures at ESCP Business School to strengthen the entrepreneurial and start-up mindset and culture among our students and community. You will actively support us in building regional and international start-up and innovation ecosystems within various projects. Therefore having an interest in and / or some knowledge of the entrepreneurial world of start-ups and innovation would be a definite plus.

Requirements:

- Bachelor or Master student during the entire period of work contract,
- Experience with the use of Microsoft Office programmes,
- Very good written and spoken English skills,
- German skills would be a plus,
- General interest in the fields of entrepreneurship and innovation,
- Experience with start-up and innovation ecosystems would be a plus,
- Able to work in a team, reliable, responsible, exhibiting initiative, energy and enthusiasm
