

Assistant / Associate Professor of FINANCIAL ACCOUNTING at ESCP Business School TURIN Campus

ESCP Business School, the World's First Business School (est. 1819) invites applications for an open position in Accounting at Assistant / Associate level.

The open position is based at the Turin Campus, Italy with a reasonably starting date of September 2024 or later.

ESCP Business School is a pan-European business school with campuses in Berlin, London, Madrid, Paris, Turin, Warsaw and a branch campus in Dubai, providing almost 30 master degrees, a bachelor and a PhD programme, as well as a wide range of executive education courses. All the ESCP academic programmes are extremely well ranked by international institutions (FT, Economist...) and are among the leading degrees in their respective fields.

We are looking for motivated, high-potential, and dynamic candidates with a strong research track record and significant teaching experiences. The candidate's research has been (or has the potential to be) published in top-tier peer-reviewed scientific journals. The candidate shows a proven ability to deliver quality teaching, also using digital and innovative teaching methods, at both graduate and undergraduate levels. A competitive salary is offered for the position, which requires a combination and a balance among research, teaching, curriculum management and School development.

ESCP is an equal-opportunity employer. We encourage applications from individuals traditionally underrepresented in higher education. The search is aimed at candidates of both sexes.

Fiscal incentives are offered by the Italian law to individuals relocating from abroad.

For further information please contact:

Prof. Francesco Venuti / Prof. Fabrizio Granà

E-Mail: jobsturin@escp.eu

Requirements

A willingness to work with colleagues from the ESCP campuses in Berlin, London, Madrid, Paris, and Warsaw is highly appreciated. Candidates should also demonstrate high level research orientation, skills in developing and expanding relationships with companies and professional organisations and extend the reputation of ESCP Business School locally and internationally.

Candidates should have the following characteristics:

- A Ph.D. in a related field. Even if an outstanding doctoral dissertation is required for the application, we will also consider candidates who are in the final stage of their doctoral thesis;
- Evidence of (or clear potential to achieve) excellence in research (publications in leading journals in the field, and/or highly innovative research);
- A passion for research and a genuine interest in working with diverse stakeholders;
- Experience and interest in teaching diverse student cohorts in English, applying innovative teaching methods and dynamic formats;
- Fluency in oral and written academic English;
- Strong expertise in international reporting and IFRS is required.

Applications details

Applications should include:

- 1) a cover letter;
- 2) a curriculum vitae, including diplomas and transcripts of records;
- 3) a research statement;
- 4) a teaching statement, including teaching evaluations of the past two years (when available);
- 5) a list of relevant publications
- 6) up to three recent research articles - working papers or published articles;
- 7) three letters of recommendation.

Please submit your application by November 15th 2024 at 11.59pm by filling the online form available <https://forms.gle/Ujpt3RHZ7dCzftsw7>.

The following steps for selected candidates will consist of interviews with the Department, and with the Deans of the School, which will take place reasonably between December 2023 and January 2024.

<http://www.escp.eu/turin>